These figures cover only the exports to Panama, sent in merchant vessels, and do not include that sent by Government transports or naval vessels. What proportion of this total of $14,000,000 worth of merchandise sent by merchant vessels to Panama, is sent for the Government or by its representatives, cannot be determined at present, since the shipments of this character, when sent by vessels engaged in the general transportation of commerce are treated in

BIG COAL DEVELOPMENT IN SOUTHERN STATES

Estimating the coal output of the York, an authority in that field, cturers' Record, of Baltimore, an es ates, as follows: West Virginia, 41,

50,000 tons: Alabama, 12,750,000; Kentucky, 9,250,000; Tennessee, 6,250,000; Maryland, 5,350,000; Virginia, 4,700,000; Texas, 1,350,000; Georgia, 400,000; or a total of 81,050,000 tons.

This estimate does not include about 2,000,000 tons of the Arkansas output, which would bring the total of the South to nearly 84,000,000 tons. But the figures mark the steady advance in coal production in a section of the country which in that particular has hardly been scratched. The past twelve months, though, have been notable for movements, especially in a wide terri-
